Kay Wildt takes office as President of North Carolina Federation of Republican Women

November 22, 2021 – Kay Wildt, a prominent Republican activist in Pinehurst and past president of Moore Republican Women (MRW), was installed as President of the North Carolina Federation of Republican Women (NCFRW) on Saturday, November 13, at the NCFRW’s Fall Board meeting in Raleigh, NC.

Ms. Wildt has been a major force in the state’s GOP, serving two terms as President of Moore Republican Women and more recently as NCFRW’s Vice President, mentoring clubs across the state. In addition to devoting her time to the NCFRW, Wildt served the National Federation of Republican Women (NFRW) as Midwest Region Leader for Caring for America projects and on its Armed Services Committee. Wildt was instrumental in MRW’s winning two national awards from the NFRW.

The NCFRW is the third-largest state federation in the United States. Its mission is to positively impact our state and nation by strengthening the Republican Party through recruitment, education, training, and supporting and electing Republicans to local, state and national office.

As President, Kay Wildt is charged with overseeing NCFRW’s 50 clubs, joining other state presidents in guiding the National Federation of Republican Women (NFRW), and serving on the North Carolina Republican Party’s Central and Executive Committees.

In her acceptance speech, Ms. Wildt commented, “It has been my honor to work in Moore County with amazing, hardworking women to protect children, families and our community. And I have found equally exceptional women in clubs across North Carolina working for our Republican Party’s foundational principles of freedom, equality and justice. We are strong, and we are stronger together.”

Founded in 1938, the National Federation of Republican Women is the largest grassroots Republican women’s organization in the country with tens of thousands of active members in local clubs across the nation.

About Moore Republican Women
