

Moore Republican Women Luncheon Speakers 2020

MRW takes pride in having a wide diversity of speakers talking about everything from national and political issues to local elections and community news.

Following is a list of the speakers we hosted at our monthly meetings in 2020:

November 2020:

John Tamny of FreedomWorks was our keynote speaker. He talked eloquently about how our politicians (NOT the coronavirus) have taken our freedom - and how we let them do it. This should never happen again!

October 2020:

Our speakers were Tim Moore, NC Speaker of the House; Hal Weatherman, campaign manager for Dan Forest; Zach Almond, private poster and campaign manager for Dan Bishop; and Emily Grace Raines, founder of Moore Citizens for Freedom.

September 20 "fun-raiser" for MRW:

Jessie Jane Duff, Marine Gunnery Sergeant (ret.), discussing the state of our country and why this election is so crucial. Also, Jim O'Neill, candidate for NC Attorney General.

September 2020:

Shemeka Michelle, author and speaker, who shared why she "walked away" from the Democrat party and learned to be true to her own opinions and values. Also Tom McInnis, NC state senator, and Jamie Bowles, NC state representative.

August 2020:

Mark Robinson, candidate for Lt. Governor, and Dan Bishop, candidate for Congress from the 9th district,.

July 2020:

Tamara Barringer, candidate for the NC Supreme Court, E.C. Sykes, candidate for Secretary of State, and Catherine Truitt, candidate for Superintendent of Schools provided impressive and compelling with reasons why we must elect them in November.

June 2020:

Southern Pines Police Chief Bob Temme, Moore Co. Sheriff Ronnie Fields, RNC Committeewoman candidate Kyshia Lineberger, Board of Education candidate Bob Levy, NC GOP vice chair Miriam Chu.

March 2020: David Hensley

David Hensley, local businessman and candidate for Moore County School Board, discussed the state of North Carolina's public schools.

February 2020: Candidate forum

A number of Republican candidates for public office had the opportunity to tell attendees about themselves prior to the March 3 primary election.

January 2020: Robert A. Taft

Mr. Taft, former Deputy Assistant Secretary of Commerce for International, consultant to the US Defense Department and college professor, provided "10 tips on how to talk with Millennials."