

Conservative sweeps for judges and School Board!

In an otherwise disappointing night for Republicans across the country, where the giant red wave didn't materialize as expected, North Carolina and Moore County were winners.

Following are the results of the 2022 election in North Carolina and Moore County:

Federal offices:

- U.S. Senate: Ted Budd
- U.S. House: Richard Hudson

State offices:

- Judgeships
 - NC State Supreme Court Associate Justices: Richard Dietz, Trey Allen
 - NC Court of Appeals Judges: Julee Tate Flood, Donna Stroud, John Tyson, Michael Stading
 - NC District Court Judges: Warren McSweeney, Beth Tanner
- NC State Senate: Tom McInnis
- NC House of Representatives: Neal Jackson, Ben Moss, John Sauls

Moore County:

- Moore County Commissioners: Jim Von Canon, John Ritter, Kurt Cook, Nick Picerno
- Clerk of Court: Todd Maness
- Register of Deeds: Bill Britton
- Sherriff: Ronnie Fields
- Board of Education:
 - Members at-large: Pauline Bruno, Ken Benway
 - District III: Shannon Davis

*With the amazing election of ALL THREE of our candidates, the Moore County Board of Education now has a strong majority (6-1) of conservative board members - a huge victory for our children!

Many thanks to EVERYONE who contributed in any way to these outstanding results. We are on our way to taking America back!
