

Moore Republican Women Press Release

Moore Republican Women say “thanks” to law enforcement personnel

January 11, 2022 – January 9 was “National Law Enforcement Appreciation Day,” and as they have done the past nine years, Moore Republican Women demonstrated their gratitude with tangible, edible goodie baskets presented to the various law enforcement agencies that serve Moore County.

MRW collected snacks from the 200+ attendees at the Club’s January brunch, added some homemade treats, and prepared goodie baskets that contained hand-written “thank you” notes from the members of the Club. The treats were personally delivered to the following agencies:

Aberdeen Police Department, Carthage Police Department, Foxfire Police Department, Moore County Sheriff’s Office, Moore County Sheriff’s Office, Animal Control, North Carolina State Bureau of Investigation, North Carolina Alcohol Law Enforcement, North Carolina Department of Insurance, North Carolina State Highway Patrol, Pinebluff Police Department, Pinehurst Police Department, Robbins Police Department, Southern Pines Police Department, Taylortown Police Department, Vass Police Department, Whispering Pines Police Department and the Wildlife Resource Commission.

The women of MRW are grateful to the dedicated people who serve and sacrifice to make our County a safer place.

About Moore Republican Women and our affiliates

Moore Republican Women is the largest of 50 Republican Women’s Clubs in North Carolina, with more than 360 members. In conjunction with the Moore Republican Men’s Club and the Moore County GOP, the group is a leading advocate for conservative Republican principles and a strong force in getting conservatives elected in Moore County, the state of North Carolina, and in national elections.

The North Carolina Federation of Republican Women is one of the largest state federations in the USA. And the National Federation of Republican Women, founded in 1938, is the largest grassroots Republican women’s organization in the country, with tens of thousands of active members in local clubs across the nation.

For more information, visit the MRW website at www.mrwnc.org.

#####

Press contact: Charli Thyne, thethynes@hotmail.com