

Moore Republican Women

PRESS RELEASE

Moore Republican Women shows appreciation for Law Enforcement Officers

January 9, 2025 – January 9 is National Law Enforcement Officer Appreciation Day, and Moore Republican Women celebrated it with smiles, snacks and thanks delivered to LEOs throughout Moore County.

At its December meeting, more than 120 MRW members and associates brought in goodies to include in baskets for LEOs and their canine partners. Then in January, the MRW Executive Board assembled the baskets, supplemented with home-baked goodies from other appreciative members, and delivered them to law enforcement officers at 14 facilities in the County. The recipients included municipal law enforcement departments, the Moore County Sheriff's Office, Animal Control and School Resource Officers.

Pilar Page, President of MRW, said, "One the core principles of Moore Republican Women is support for our men and women in Blue. This is just a small way we send a big thank-you to them for the work they do, every day, 24/7. Moore County is lucky to have such dedicated and courageous people on the job keeping our neighborhoods safe and our communities strong."

About Moore Republican Women and our affiliates

Moore Republican Women is the largest of more than 50 Republican women's clubs in North Carolina. In conjunction with the Moore Republican Men's Club and the Moore County GOP, the group is a leading advocate for conservative Republican principles and a strong force in getting conservatives elected in Moore County, the state of North Carolina, and in national elections.

The North Carolina Federation of Republican Women is one of the largest state federations in the USA. And the National Federation of Republican Women, founded in 1938, is the largest grassroots Republican women's organization in the country, with tens of thousands of active members in local clubs across the nation.
