President's Message by Pauline Bruno

What I like about President Trump

With all the nonsense, lies and total lack of common sense invading our lives and our homes, it is heartening to know we have Donald Trump as our leader. The man is steadfast and results-oriented. He would never kick the can down the road.

He sees a problem and he solves it. Period! He fights, he pushes back, and he keeps his word.

He doesn't believe in global nation building. He believes in America and in you and me. As a businessman, he knows not to throw good money after bad. I truly believe he was sent by God in these very difficult times for our country.

Talk about a man of substance. He is a doer. America will thrive under his leadership, so our grandchildren will grow up in the America we know and love - not in the socialist world envisioned by liberal thinkers, which has totally failed worldwide.

Thank you, Mr. President, for being you.

Pauline

P.S. Here's a good wrap-up of all the wonderful things the Trump Administration has done for our country to date.

MRW sponsors essay contest for 8th grade students

MRW is sponsoring an American Essay Contest for 8th grade students. The topic is "What It Means To Be An American." Writers should place emphasis on our country's origin, meaning and the significance of being an American today.

If you know anyone with 8th grade children, encourage them to enter! The deadline for submission is February 15, 2019. Our club will select a winner by February 28, and this local entry will then be submitted to the State Essay Contest.

MRW will award a prize of $300. Winnings at the state level will be another $300.

If anyone you know wants to submit an entry, please have them email it to Pauline Bruno.

Come to the February 4 MRW Luncheon!

Its not too late to RSVP! Deadline is January 29 at noon.

Here's the full information about guest speaker, menu, Caring for America donations and more...

Make your reservation today!

Update on MRW goals

#1. Increase membership by 15%.

Many thanks to those of you who invited guests to our February luncheon!

In addition, we placed ads in The Pilot, The Sandhills Sentinel, The Pinestraw and the Seven Lakes paper, inviting people to our event. And we are publicizing the Essay Contest (see article above) as a way to draw in more people.

We're also working on Goal #2 (getting more mentions in The Pilot), and on achieving Goals #3 and #4, which focus on getting our members more involved in political events and supporting the President/Republican representatives. Stay tuned!

MRW Book Club meets February 11

We're having a great time in this new book club. It's a unique opportunity to read books that inform our views on culture, politics, history and more.

Join us! Our next book is Tucker Carlson's "Ship of Fools," and we'll meet Monday, February 11, 2019 at Republican Headquarters in Olmsted Village at 4:00 p.m.

If you're interested in attending, contact Pauline Bruno.

Box Tops for Education by Kimberly Lindenberger

Please continue to support The Academy of Moore County by cutting out and donating Box Tops for Education. This is a joint project between Moore Republican Women and the Moore County Republican Men's Club.

Box Tops for Education 10 cent coupons are located on the exterior packaging of the following products: Betty Crocker items, Finish dishwasher pods, General Mills cereal, Hefty trash bags, Kleenex tissues, Land O Lakes butter, Lysol household cleaners, Motts apple sauce, Nature Valley granola bars, Progresso soup, Reynolds parchment paper, and Ziploc storage bags.

When you sign in at the monthly luncheon, please look for a poster and jar at the Caring for America table. You can put your Box Tops in there. Thank you.

A final note of Christmas cheer!

These toys collected by MRW were delivered by Military Missions in Action to military families at Christmas. Our members came through once again!

Just for laughs...

- I was thinking - Since only 11 million people have ObamaCare, how will 24 million people die if it is repealed? Will an additional 13 million people be randomly shot?
- I was thinking - If Donald Trump deleted all his emails, wiped his server with Bleach-bit and destroyed all of his phones with a hammer, would the Mainstream Media suddenly lose all interest in the story and declare him innocent?
- I was thinking - If women do the same job for less money, why do companies hire men to do the same job for more money?
- I was thinking - If you rob a bank in a Sanctuary City, is it illegal or is it just an undocumented withdrawal?
- I was thinking - We should stop calling them all "Entitlements." Welfare, food stamps, WIC, ad nausea are not entitlements. They are taxpayer-funded handouts and shouldn't be called entitlements at all. Social Security and veterans benefits are entitlements because the people receiving them are entitled to them. They were earned and paid for by the recipients.
- I was thinking - If Muslims want to run away from a Muslim country, does that mean they're Islamophobic?
- I was thinking - Why is it that Democrats think Super delegates are fine, but they have a problem with the Electoral College?
- I was thinking - If Hillary's speeches cost $250,000 an hour, how come no one shows up to her free ones?
- I was thinking - If Democrats don't want foreigners involved in our elections, why do they think it's all right for illegals to vote?

Just thinking — Somebody better start thinking!
