MRW election: Slate of officers

In addition to the municipal elections (see below), there's another election you should care about: The MRW election of officers at our November 3 luncheon.

At the October luncheon, the MRW Nominating Committee -Sandi Carl (Chair), Lisa Sheridan, Margaret Temme, Regina Paquette and Kay Wildt - presented the slate of officers to be elected at our November meeting.

After a thorough review of the applications, discussion and prayerful consideration, the Nominating Committee presented the following slate of candidates for 2022-2023 elected offices:

- President: Maureen Krueger
- 1st Vice President (Programs): Wanda Little
- 2nd Vice President (Membership): Mariann Benway
- Treasurer: Christina McCall
- Secretary: Pilar Page

At the luncheon, the Nominating Committee accepted another nomination for President from the floor: Victoria Hardin.

We will present more information about Maureen and Victoria, the two candidates for President, in an upcoming communication to Members only (Associates are not eligible to vote).

Please plan to attend the November luncheon for this important election.

Vote in the municipal elections

Let's vote as many conservatives into office as possible! It's the key to our future in Moore County - and good practice for what promises to be a red wave next year!

This November 2 is election day for various local offices. Visit the Moore County Board of Elections for information about early voting here.

Because the election is "non-partisan," party affiliations will not be listed on the ballots. So here is a list with the registered political party of each of the candidates in all the municipal races. Share it with all your friends who will be voting:

Getting to know candidates for Pinehurst Council

On Monday, October 11, MRW helped sponsor a Candidate Forum to enable our members to get to know what each of the four candidates for Pinehurst Council (all of them Republicans) stand for. About 70 people attended this event.

Here are other opportunities to get to know the candidates:

10/13: Emily Stack: "Meet and Greet" at Market Place Restaurant, Olmsted Village Shopping Center, 6:30 - 8:30 p.m.

Interviews on WEEB Radio (97.3 FM, 990 AM) at 9:00 a.m.

- 10/13: Jeff Morgan
- 10/15: Pat Pizzella
- 10/21: Kevin Drum

For those who live in Whispering Pines:

MRW is also planning a forum on October 25 for Whispering Pines candidates. It will be at the Whispering Pines Community Building on Ray's Bridge Road at 6:00 p.m..

Be proud of your Club!

The National Federation of Republican Women (NFRW) recently honored Moore Republican Women at its biennial convention in Florida with the following prestigious national awards:

Caring for America Award

We won this for our leadership in fighting Critical Race Theory in our schools. Our multi-pronged approach to enlist the help of club members and NCFRW clubs to educate parents across North Carolina, inform local school boards and request help from legislators helped stop this malignant threat. MRW became the leading voice in the North Carolina Federation of Republican Women opposing CRT and the Federal Government's plan to mandate CRT in federal funding. MRW continues to fight for children!

Armed Services Award

For more than eight years, our club's priority has been to help the military in our community. At every monthly meeting, we collect donations to help a military-connected organization with its work, and we actively seek ways throughout the year to honor our military, veterans and their families.

For these actions, the National Federation of Republican Women honored MRW with its Armed Services award.

Diamond Achievement Award

For the 5th biennial convention in a row, MRW has received this award, which is given to clubs that meet the highest exacting standards for Club Functions, Membership Development, Programs, Leadership Development, Campaign Activities and Community Relations.

Congratulations to everyone in MRW for these achievements!

Scenes from October luncheon

Nearly 200 people attended our October luncheon to hear 19 candidates for office give their 3-minute "elevator speeches" about why we should vote for them. It was fun, informative, and a prime example of how passionately conservatives care about improving their communities.

Diane Authement once again outdid herself creating the Fall raffle basket; she and husband Charles always maximize sales to benefit MRW.

Joe Biden and Kamala Harris were spookily present in spirit.

Representing the National Federation of Republican Women, Kay Wildt presented Pauline Bruno with the national awards that honored MRW for its great work throughout the year on a variety of fronts (see article above).

Fundraising results at October luncheon

Thanks to all for helping us raise these funds for MRW's political and community work:

Split the Pot - $295. Pidgie Chapman won $147.50. Thank you, Charli Thyne and Amy Walters, for selling the tickets!

Basket Raffle - $500. Thank you, Diane and Charles Authement, for another exquisite Halloween-themed basket!

Ways & Means- $149. Thanks to all who purchased our “right wing bling” and to Sandy Fowler manning the table beautifully as always!

PLUS: We received many gift cards and food items for our Thanksgiving baskets for destitute veterans, and the luncheon collection netted $374. Thank you, generous Members and Associates!
