

August 2022 Second Edition

Speakers at August 3 Brunch

Our scheduled speaker, Jeremy Dys, was unable to attend because he was called into court, but he was ably replaced by Holly Randall, Associate Counsel, First Liberty Institute. She detailed the key decisions her organization just celebrated at the U.S. Supreme Court that were huge wins for religious freedom. The "Coach Kennedy" case ensured that public employees can still express their religious beliefs in the public square; the Maine School Choice decision established that public funds can go to religious schools. The Institute is now working to ensure members of the U.S. Navy do not have to receive Covid vaccinations if they cite religious exemptions.

Susan Mills, Vice President of the NC GOP, talked about the critical goal of electing conservative judges in November. The Dems are pumping money into North Carolina, so she urged all to contribute to the Judicial Victory Fund. Here's where you can donate. Any amount is appreciated and valuable!

Addul Ali, Chairman of the Cabarrus County GOP, briefly talked about People for Awesome Schools and commended MRW and School Board members and candidates for being part of the Family Fest in West Southern Pines, where they served 250 people delicious free BBQ. Attendees told him it was the first time they had seen anyone helping them out and caring about their children's education.

Loren Spivack, conservative author and speaker about free market economics, talked about his books, which re-work some famous children's books to reveal conservative truths.

MRW President Maureen Krueger poses with members of First Liberty Institute, who made the long trip from Plano, Texas, just to talk with our group and meet with conservative leaders in Moore County.

For more information about First Liberty Institute, their mission and their successes, visit its website here.

If you or someone you know needs (free) legal help regarding religious freedom of expression, this is the group to contact.

Additional speakers:

Kay Wildt, President, NC Federation of Republican Women. Kay stressed the importance of doing everything in our power to win this November. The NCFRW newsletter has many articles and opportunities of interest to MRW members and Associates. See the article below for more information on making sure you're getting these publications.

Harold Mendelson: Harold promoted an important fundraiser for the Judicial Victory Fund: The NC Sportsman's Gun Raffle. Go here to get your tickets and find out more about the Sportsmen Banquet on October 1.

Victoria Huggins, Miss North Carolina 2018: Victoria talked about the Walk to End Alzheimer's on October 1 in Moore County at Aberdeen Lake Park. MRW members Betsy Miller and Sheriff Ronnie Fields are leading teams to walk. Show them both some support!

Are you getting your newsletters?

National Federation of Republican Women

As a member of MRW, you are automatically a member of NCFRW and should be receiving its monthly newsletter. Here is the August issue - a real blockbuster! If these are not coming into your mailbox, please email NCFRepublicanWomen@gmail.com and request that your email be put on the list of recipients.

Moore Republican Women

If you are not receiving issues of MRW's communications, please try these measures to rectify the situation:

- Check your "junk" mail to see if the communications are going in there.
- Enter "Moore Republican Women" in your contacts list, using the email address of mrwnc1981@gmail.com.
- Some people have said it doesn't show up on their tablets, so check other devices like your phone or computer.

If you have completed the above actions and still are not getting our communications, please contact pilarpage1@gmail.com.

Membership news

Ways & Means raises money for Judicial Victory Fund

The beautiful and patriotic "Beach Basket" raffle drew in $360. Once again, thanks to Diane and Charles Authement for making sure MRW can raise significant funds at each of our meetings through these creative baskets. It was won by Kay Wildt.

Split the Pot netted $150. Bill Demastus was the winner.

"Right-wing bling" raised $113.

All in all, we raised $623, which will be donated to the Judicial Victory Fund. Thanks to all who bought tickets and jewelry - your generosity is tremendous!

MRW Directories

MRW Directories were available for pick-up at the brunch and will be available again at the September luncheon.

Also, please note that there are two sections in the directory, one for regular members, and one for associates (which includes Republican men, but also includes Republican women registered to vote, but who live outside Moore County). If you're looking for a person, be sure to check in both sections.
