Highlights from June luncheon

Valerie White Johnson from the Frederick Douglass Foundation discussed the important work her organization is doing to bring minority voters into the Republican Party. Visit the website to sign up or donate.

David Fox, Vice-Chair of the Lee County GOP, eloquently explained why he's a conservative and how important it is for us to work together toward a better society based on Constitutional principles.

Mariann Benway hands Member Directory to Noel Roberts. You can pick yours up at the August luncheon.

Always a lovely time, as our members, associates and visitors enjoy a delicious lunch and fascinating speakers.

We collected men's XL clothing for vets and the Coalition.

Miriam Chu elected Vice-Chair of NC GOP

Congratulations to our own Miriam Chu, who was elected Vice-Chair of the North Carolina Republican Party at the annual convention in Concord, NC.

Miriam has been an indefatigable and visionary member of MRW for years. At the luncheon, she gave us words of hope that the new leaders who were just elected will bring stability, vision and new life into our state's GOP. Read more about her victory here.

God speed, Miriam!

No MRW Luncheon in July

We always take a break in July, as many people are vacationing. So there is no MRW luncheon next month.

Have a happy and meaningful Fourth of July!

Trump Campaign Announcement Watch Party

You're invited! Be there to watch President Trump and Mike Pence officially announce their 2020 campaign!

Tuesday, June 18
GOP Headquarters (Olmsted Village Shopping Center)
7:00 p.m.

Not only will the rally be entertaining for us, but we will also participate in getting the announcement out via social media. A college Republican will be there to help us with Facebook, Twitter, etc.

Join us for food, drinks and fun as we support the 2020 Trump/Pence campaign. We hope to see you there.

Membership update by Mariann Benway

Welcome these new members

A warm and hearty welcome to Maureen Buckley and Micki McGarry, the newest members of MRW!

Fundraising report

Our Ways & Means committee reports that we raised the following funds at our June luncheon:

- The fantastic BBQ raffle (created by Diane Authement), raised $310 and was won by Maureen Krueger.
- Pamela Venet won $72 in the Split the Pot raffle, which she donated on the spot to the Frederick Douglass Foundation.
- We raised $91 in jewelry sales and MAGA hats.

Thanks for supporting our various community and political activities through your donations and purchases!

Help wanted: Ways & Means Committee Chair

Mariann Benway has chaired this important committee for several years and done an outstanding job. But nothing lasts forever, including committee chairmanships! Mariann is ready to turn it over to another volunteer. If you're interested in finding out what's involved, please contact her at Mariann.Benway@me.com. We need you!!

Volunteer hour tracking

Take a few moments each month to track your volunteer hours starting on July 1 and ending December 31, 2019. You can turn in your hours at our December brunch so we can compile the results.

To make it easy we've developed this volunteer policy that gives examples of eligible volunteer activities, and here is a volunteer hours sheet to help you keep track. Estimate separate hours spent volunteering for election/political activities and for charities in our community.

Letter from US Rep. Hudson regarding Equality Act

If you're looking for a clear analysis of the proposed "Equality Act," (H.R. 5 currently before Congress), here's a letter from Congressman Richard Hudson sent to our own Peggy Smetana which makes the issues easy to understand:
