

Letter from the President by Maureen Krueger

IN SUPPORT OF MARK AND YOLANDA ROBINSON – TRUE CONSERVATIVE LEADERSHIP

In 2018, an ordinary citizen attended a Greensboro City Council meeting with a vague interest in an agenda item concerning a gun show. This man didn't even own a gun at the time, but he grew concerned about the council's predilection towards restricting gun rights. This potential encroachment to the Second Amendment stirred the man to make public comments to the council. For almost four minutes, this unknown citizen delivered an impassioned and extemporaneous speech about our God given rights, the Second Amendment and the role of government. The speech went viral, and soon all of North Carolina knew the name Mark Robinson.

Lt. Gov. Mark Robinson to speak at sold-out luncheon

As expected, this luncheon sold out quickly as people pounced on the chance to hear Lt. Governor Mark Robinson speak.

The Lt. Governor has recently been the subject of media frenzy (see President's message above) - and he has responded here. Along with many other conservative organizations, MRW stands with him and his wife Yolanda, and we thank them for their steadfast pro-life stance.

If you are attending, please remember that we are collecting children's books, to be donated through our Literacy Project. Checks made out to "MRW" to purchase more books are also accepted.

MC GOP endorses Bruno, Benway

On March 16 at a special meeting of the Moore County GOP, the GOP voted to endorse Pauline Bruno and Ken Benway in their races for School Board. Both are members/associates of MRW.

This School Board election is "non-partisan," in which party affiliation is not listed on the ballot, so the MC GOP was able to endorse prior to the primary. As there were multiple people running in the primary for the "at large" slots, the GOP decided to let the public know which candidates they favored for conservative, effective leadership.

Shannon Davis, who is also running for School Board and is an MRW member, is automatically entered in the November election, as there is only one other candidate in her "slot."

Ronna McDaniel visit highlights dangers of CRT

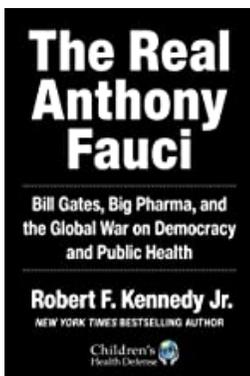

Ronna McDaniel, Chair of the Republican National Committee, came to Greensboro, NC on March 10 to talk about education. In an article she wrote that appears in the North State Journal, she said, "For two years, our kids have been subjected to Democrats' harmful policies. Politicians act as though they're entitled to your children's education and know what's best for them. Our classrooms and school boards have become a political battleground. It's a war for your kids' hearts and minds—and ultimately the future of our nation. That's why strong families and informed, involved parents have never been more crucial."

Update on MRW activities

MRW Book Club meeting May 12

MRW meets Dr. Ben Carson

Dr. Ben Carson was in town a couple weeks ago as a featured part of the James E. Houlshouser Lecture Series. Here, he and his wife Candy posed with three MRW Presidents (Maureen Krueger, Kay Wildt and Pauline Bruno).

Everyone who attended agreed it was a great event!

MRW holds first Saturday Social

Some of our members are unable to attend our luncheons, so MRW held its first Saturday Social on March 26 to give them an opportunity to hear important speakers. Ted Budd, candidate for NC Senator, was the featured guest, and he answered questions from the audience. It was a casual event; around 70 people attended and enjoyed coffee and cookies.

The Miseducation of America

The Miseducation of America is an excellent video series that traces the history of the Left's takeover of education. WeTheParentsMoore hosted a viewing of the film at the Sunrise Theater in Southern Pines, and many of us at MRW were there to view the film, which received rave reviews. While this Fox Nation documentary is behind a paywall, it is very worthwhile and we highly recommend it. You can find it on FoxNation here.

Cleaning up

Four times a year, as part of our commitment to Adopt-A-Highway, MRW members pick up trash on Airport Road near the Harris Teeter in Whispering Pines. We did exactly that on March 14. Many thanks to the volunteers who stepped up to do this job. We care about our environment!

Looking ahead to these events...

April 21: Moore County Republican Men's Club Luncheon, 12 noon, Lighthouse at Little river. Keynote speaker: Admiral Leighton "Snuffy" Smith (ret.), Commander in Chief, U.S. Navy Forces Europe/NATO Allied Forces Southern Europe (1994-96). Register here.

May 15: Annual Lincoln Reagan Dinner, the Moore County Republican Party's major annual fundraiser celebrating the life and legacy of two iconic Republican presidents. Country Club of North Carolina, 6:00 p.m. Keynote speaker in 2022 is Derooy Murdock, a renowned columnist, author, scholar, and frequent Fox News contributor. Save the date!

Words of wisdom from Kamala Harris

This is the Vice President of the United States of America:

It is time for us to do what we have been doing, and that time is every day.

- Kamala Harris

*We must together. Work together.
To see where we are. Where we are headed, where we are going and our vision for where we should be. But also see it as a moment to, yes. Together, address the challenges and to work on the opportunities that are presented by this moment.*

- Kamala Harris

“Ukraine is a country in Europe.
It exists next to another country called Russia.

Russia is a bigger country.
Russia is a powerful country.
Russia decided to invade a smaller country called Ukraine.
So, basically, that’s wrong.”

Kamala Harris
