About Moore Republican Women and our affiliates

Moore Republican Women is the largest of more than 50 Republican women's clubs in North Carolina. In conjunction with the Moore Republican Men's Club and the Moore County GOP, the group is a leading advocate for conservative Republican principles and a strong force in getting conservatives elected in Moore County, the state of North Carolina, and in national elections.

The North Carolina Federation of Republican Women is one of the largest state federations in the USA. And the National Federation of Republican Women, founded in 1938, is the largest grassroots Republican women's organization in the country, with tens of thousands of active members in local clubs across the nation.
