Log your volunteer hours from July 1 - December 31

It's important to MRW to know what kind of impact our members have on the community. As such, we ask that you take a few moments each month to track your volunteer hours starting on July 1 and ending December 31, 2019. You can turn in your hours at our December brunch so we can compile the results.

To make it easy we've developed this volunteer policy that gives examples of eligible volunteer activities, and here is a volunteer hours sheet to help you keep track. Estimate separate hours spent volunteering for election/political activities and for charities in our community.

Our experience is that most members do not give themselves enough credit for all the good works they do, because being generous with our time comes second nature to us.

Thank you for all the wonderful activities you do to strengthen our community and our GOP.

MRW takes part in Memorial Day
Celebration

At the Moore County Veterans Memorial in Carthage, women from MRW helped honor fallen heroes from Moore County who were killed in the past 100 years, from WWI to the present.

Check out this new conservative website

We recommend a new website called Conservative Insight, created by Robert Taft, author and former Deputy Assistant Secretary of Commerce for International Operations and consultant to the U.S. Defense Department.

The website's mission is to "Eradicate Obfuscation," and Mr. Taft offers his analysis of today's most pressing issues. Each week will feature a different issue and/or quiz, and even online debates if he can find a courageous liberal willing to actually debate. Give it a try!

MRW Book Club meetings

The MRW Book Club is taking a vacation during the summer. We'll be back in September, so watch for notices in this newsletter. If you have a great suggestion for the next book, please email Pauline Bruno.

Remember to collect box tops! by Kimberly Lindenberger

We support The Academy of Moore County by cutting out and donating Box Tops for Education. The Box Top coupons are located on the exterior packaging of the products listed here.

When you sign in at the MRW luncheon, look for a poster and jar at the Caring for America table. You can put your Box Tops in there. Thank you!
